

Please add my voice to the list of persons opposed to the relaxed standards for broadcast ownership under consideration at the FCC. Consider the enormous impact this will have on the objectivity and completeness of information I and other American citizens will receive if diversity is regulated out of the public airwaves. You and I own the airways; let us keep them free and competitive.

Edward Elsey
Shelby, Michigan